

EVALUATION OF GROUP CREATIVE ACTIVITIES

EVALUATION THEMES AND THEIR DESCRIPTIONS

Socialising

It is a social occasion, easy for people with aphasia to take part in and includes people who understand each other's difficulties

Empowerment

Learning more about ourselves
Expressing our identity as individuals and as a group
Being more active and motivated
Having control over what we do

Working together and making progress

Working together with a common purpose, making progress as we practice, and becoming more confident

Communication

Taking part helps with communication
Opportunities to express ourselves
Becoming more confident in communication
Showing what we can do changes other people's perspectives of us

Connecting with our feelings

Feeling good, more confident and stronger
Feeling it is okay to make mistakes

Being creative

There are new experiences and no limits to being creative
It is an activity people with aphasia can take part in and shine
